

MIOG 101 – FUNDAMENTALS OF OIL AND GAS OPERATIONS

How conversant are you with the regional Oil and Gas sector operations?

Morendat Institute of Oil & Gas developed a course dubbed MIOG 101 which covers fundamentals of Oil and Gas operations. Trainees will understand the dynamics of the value chain from Upstream, Midstream to Downstream. Other benefits include understanding of:-

Date:
26th July
to 30th July
2021

Venue:
Naivasha

Fees:
Kshs.
42,750

1. The sector's business strategy and the shared vision that drive its success.
2. The contribution to the achievement of business objectives and goals thus leading to increased efficiency and productivity.
3. Help onboarding employees to settle down quickly in the new work environment.
4. Makes it easy for employees to identify their training needs and career development.
5. Increase employee job satisfaction as they understand the core business of the organization.
6. Helps students to choose areas of interest for further study.
7. Help aspiring businesspeople with an interest in Oil and Gas to choose areas offocus and investment.

Who should attend?

The course is designed for personnel from a range of technical, non-technical backgrounds in the Oil and Gas and related sectors including investors in the oil and gas sector.

Lead Trainers

Upstream – Eng. Michelle Boit – Petroleum Engineering Consultant

Midstream – Mr. Anthony Nyakiamo, Formerly of KPRL with over two decades experience in oil and gas processing

Downstream – Eng. Martin Wanyama – Operations Manager, KPC

To register for the course, please visit MIOG website and fill the online application form.

For more information contact
Victoria.kitundu@kpc.co.ke or
Freda.cheruiyot@kpc.co.ke